DETAILED ACTION

Claims included in the prosecution are 1-13.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear as to what applicant intends to convey by 'a dietary lecithin supplement' in claim 1. lecithin is a specific compound and according to the claim the entire composition is in a single formulation.

Claim 1 specifically recites 'B complex' meaning that all the specific B vitamins falling within the terms are included. Therefore, claim 3 which recites a combination of two or more compounds is inconsistent with the parent claim. Since B complex included folic acid, claim 11 which recites folic acid as further addition is inconsistent with claim 1.

What is meant by 'selenium yeast' in claim 7? Does the expression mean that the source is yeast?

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11

F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-13 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 of U.S. Patent No. 6,180,139. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patented method is drawn to the same composition with generic 'administering'; instant dependent claims 12 and 13 are drawn to the species of the forms of the oral formulation, the genus therefore, anticipates the oral administration specific forms of oral formulation in instant claims.
